St. George's Episcopal Church
Corner Princess Anne & George Streets
Fredericksburg, Virginia 22401

Dear Charles:

When the organ at St. George's Episcopal Church was over the front part of the church, I started singing in the choir when I was about 18 years old, with Charles Lewis and about six older people including Mr. and Mrs. Sweetser, and the janitor pumped the organ. I continued singing in the choir until the organ was moved to the chancel, and sang in the choir until they hired a choirmaster and he found out I could not read music, and that ended my singing. I was told I sang unison.

Breaking the muscle in my ankle year before last has affected my walking. I am now being treated for a heart condition, and dizziness, but I keep up with what is going on in the church.

I note from the newspaper that the church had to pay $9,000 for an organ, and I am enclosing my check for $500 to help with expenses.

Sincerely yours,

Robert
