ACT OF 1714

THE LAWS OF VIRGINIA 133

German Protestants Parish of St. George. No. 39

An Act to exempt certain German Protestants from the Payment of Levies for seven Years; and for Erecting the Parish of St. George.

I. Whereas certain German Protestants, to the Number of Forty-two Persons, or thereabouts, have been lately settled above the Falls of the River Rappahanock, on the Southern Branch of the said River, called the Rappidann, at a Place named Germanna, in the County of Essex, and have there begun to build and make Improvements for their Cohabitation, to the great Advantage of this Colony, and the Security of the Frontiers in those Parts from the Incursion of the Indians: For the Encouragement therefore of the said Germans in their Infant Settlement, Be it Enacted by the Lieutenant Governour, Council and Burgeses of this present General Assembly, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority of the same, That all and every the Germans now seated at Germanna, shall be, and are hereby declared to be free and discharged from the Payment of all, and all manner of Publick or County Levies or Assessments whatsoever, for and during the Term of Seven Years, from and after the End of this Session of Assembly: And if any other German, Preamble.

Enacted,

That the Germans now settled at Germanna shall be free from payment of all Publick Levies for seven Years.

or other Foreign Protestants, shall, within the said Term of seven Years, settle themselves at Germanna aforesaid, such German and Germans, and other Foreign Protestants, shall be free and discharged from the Payment of all such Levies for the Term of seven Years, from the Time of their settling at Germanna respectively: Provided such Germans, or Foreigners, who now are, or who within the said Term of seven Years, shall settle at Germanna aforesaid, shall be and continue for so long Time to cohabit at Germanna. And if any of the said Germans, or others, shall depart from the said Settlement of Germanna, and inhabit any other part of this Colony, such German and Germans, and other Foreign Protestants, leaving the said Settlement, shall be assessed and pay all such Levies and Taxes as his Majesty's Subjects of this Dominion shall and do pay.

II. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Place called Germanna, together with a Precinct of Land thereunto next adjoining, extending five Miles on each Side of the said Town or Settlement of Germanna, is and shall be from henceforth a distinct Parish of itself, and shall be called by the Name of the Parish of St. George, and is and shall be divided and exempt from the Parish of St. Mary in the said County of Essex, and from all Dependencies, Offices, Charges and Contributions, for or in respect thereof, and from the Cure of the Minister of the said Parish of St. Mary and his Successors; and also is and shall be discharged of all Levies, Oblations, Obventions, and all other Pa-

And if any other German or Foreign Protestants shall, within the said Term of seven years, settle at Germanna aforesaid shall be free from all such Levies for seven Years from the Time of their settling if they continue so long at Germanna. But if they depart from Germanna and settle in any other Part of the Colony, then to pay the usual Levies and Taxes.

The Place called Germanna, to be a distinct Parish, by the Name of St. George, divided from the Parish of St. Mary.

[The small stone so marked is immediately adjacent to the handsome tomb
of Judge John Coalter.]

Coalter, John
"This stone is erected in Memory of JOHN COALTER of Chatham. Of humble origin, he rose to eminence Less by the display of uncommon
talents than by moral worth. By an integrity that none ever questioned. A fidelity that evaded no duty.
A firmness that defied
a like temptation and danger. And a sincerity simplicity and kindness
of nature That won the hearts of all
who approached him.
The records of his country testify
the honourable posts

which he filled.
 Of his private virtues all who knew him can speak.
 But the Depth of his unpretending
 goodness is known
 only to the God
 whom he worshipped
 in the secret of his own heart.
 While in every act
 of his life he served him openly.
 To him who gave it
 the Spirit has returned. The dust lies here. His children have placed this Stone
 To record his virtues
 to his children's children. He was born in Rockbridge, Virga Aug, 20th 1769 And died at Chatham, near this place Feb. 2nd 1838.
 Touching this spot
